

Victory 'is a landmark'

Hackney's endangered community law team is celebrating after saving a family from homelessness in a case which could set a legal precedent for the future.

Hackney Community Law Centre in Lower Clapton Road, under threat from government cuts, helped a woman claim costs from Westminster Council after she and her son were housed temporarily in Hackney.

Lord Justice Jackson said the outcome should influence other legal decisions.

Hackney Crayette

June 16, 2011